

Rælingen videregående skole - Our School

Rælingen vgs is a general secondary school with about 80 teachers and 620 students in the age between 16 and 19.

Educational System- Norway

- Most children in Norway attend kindergarden. The children are in the age between 1 and 5. Kindergarden is optional.

Formal education includes primary and secondary school.

- Children start in primary school at the age of 6. They finish at the age of 13.

Educational System- Norway

- Lower secondary school starts when the students are 13 years old, and lasts for 3 years.
- There are also a few private schools under State control where the students must pay a low fee. (The government provides most of the funding for the private schools)

Educational System- Norway

- The upper secondary education system can be classified as General Schools, and Vocational and Technical Schools.
- •General schools lasts for 3 years and prepare students for higher education.
- •Vocational and technical schools lasts for 4 years; 2 years at school and two years apprenticeship. Students take an exam after these four years to qualify for a profession.

Lillestrøm- Our City

- Lillestrøm is situated 20 km east of Oslo – the capital of Norway.
- 50 000 inhabitants lives in Lillestrøm and nearby areas.

