

Aydın Fen Lisesi- Our School

Our general secondary school has got 25 teachers and 224 students. We have got activities like Football, Basketball, Folk Dancing, Chess.

Educational System- Turkey

Formal education includes pre-school education, primary education and secondary education.

- Pre-Primary education is an optional education for children between 3-5 years.
- Pre-school education is given in kindergartens, daycare homes, nursery classes in primary schools, and in private nurseries.

Educational System- Turkey

- Primary education is compulsory for all boys and girls at the age of at least 66 months, and is given free of charge in public schools.
- These schools provide twelve years of uninterrupted education.
- There are also private (and paid) schools under State control.

Educational System- Turkey

- The secondary education system can be classified as General High Schools, and Vocational and Technical High Schools and last four years.
- At the end of high school, following the 12th grade, students take the National University Entrance Examination to continue their studies at a university or a two year school.

Aydın- Our City

Aydın city is a province of south-western Turkey, located in the Aegean Region.

The provincial capital is the city of Aydın which has a population of approx. 186,000 and over 1 million with its suburb population.